REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Williams Memorial Elementary continued in its efforts to provide a quality education to all of its 660 students through dynamic, hands-on instructional opportunities. In addition to their quality instruction, teachers made a point of connecting their students' learning to real-life experiences. This year, all students at WMES took part in at least two field trips, with some students going to four different locations throughout Charleston and Columbia. In the classroom, WMES continued to implement initiatives, such as; Literacy Work Stations, Orthon-Gillingham, Small Group Instruction, RTI, school-wide problem solving, and reading and writing across the curriculum.

Opportunities through extracurricular activities continue to be a focus for WMES. This year over 400 students in Kindergarten through the fifth grade participated in our Book Clubs, Art Clubs, Chorus, Recycling Troopers, TV News Crew, Technology Club, Cheerleading, Soccer, and Basketball programs. Thirty of our Math Club students competed in a state competition with several of them finishing in the top 5% for their grade levels.

The WMES PTA has continued to be instrumental in the growth of WMES. Their support with finances as well as their willingness to volunteer and be a part of our students' development shows the importance of working together for a common goal. Our parents, grandparents and Veterans have been and always will be a great support, taking part in our different luncheons, programs and events.

At WMES, we feel that it takes a great team to make every year better than the last. Our team of staff, faculty, administrators, and teachers continue to work together to make this possible. All of the teachers at WMES are Highly Qualified, with 13 of them being National Board Certified. This year also marked the fourth consecutive year that WMES housed the District's Teacher of the Year.

As the future continues to bring us many challenges, our WMES team will continue to strive in meeting each child's academic and social needs, because at Williams Memorial Elementary, we will always be "PAWS"-itively the Best.
